

Facilities and Administrative (F&A) Cost Recovery

OMB 2CFR 220, establishes principles to provide that the Federal Government bear its fair share of total costs, both direct and indirect (F&A).

Direct costs are those costs identified specifically with a particular sponsored project, an instructional activity, or any other institutional activity, or can be easily and accurately assigned to such activities. An example of a direct cost would be salaries and their related fringe benefits.

F&A costs are those incurred for common or joint objectives and therefore cannot be identified readily and specifically with a particular project or activity. An example of an indirect cost would be the administration of payroll and benefits, or building utility and maintenance costs. F&A is called "reimbursement" because UNM incurs very real expenses associated with being able to support sponsored projects and F&A is meant to reimburse these expenses.

Request for Reduction or Waiver of F&A

An F&A cost waiver is an institutional agreement between UNM and a sponsor that F&A costs will be charged at a rate lower than the sponsor's published rate or that F&A costs will not be charged to a particular sponsored agreement. A waiver shall be granted only under exceptional circumstances and only when the programmatic benefit to the university is compelling and outweighs the institutional benefit of recovering the full cost of conducting the project.

An F&A cost waiver shall not be approved because the principal investigator thinks this will increase the competitiveness of the application or because the total award amount is capped.
